Come to the annual ISA Conference in Texas a little early and join us for a summer morning at the Golf Club Fossil Creek to help raise money for tree research and education. This premier Arnold Palmer designed par 72 golf course is one of the Southwest's most exclusive public golf courses.

The four-person scramble format starts at 8:00 a.m. and wraps up with a festive awards luncheon. Your $150 registration covers all greens fees, transportation to and from the golf course, a light breakfast, a plentiful lunch and lots of prize opportunities. Net proceeds benefit the TREE Fund so they can provide more research grants and scholarships. Hole sponsorships are also available for $600 and $1,200.
